

Getting to the Grand Hotel, Malahide (www.thegrand.ie)

The Grand Hotel is very well situated for all transportation requirements. We are near Dublin Airport and the M50 and have a full range of other transport alternatives for our guests.

Taxi

There are a number of taxi services operating from Malahide. We recommend you book your taxi the night before departure in order to avoid possible delays. Reception would be delighted to make bookings for you. Some useful numbers are:

- Dial-a-cab (1800 406 806)      Airport Express (855 3333)

Public Transport

Malahide is well serviced by public transport links, both bus and rail. Schedules are available from reception.

Bus The most frequent bus service is the 42. It departs from the centre of the village to Lower Abbey Street in the city centre. (200m, out Hotel gate, through traffic lights, on the left, opposite church)

The 32A service departs from near the Tennis Club. It takes the Coastal route to Lower Abbey Street in the city centre. (50m, out Hotel gate, at Tennis Club on right)

Rail DART \(Dublin Area rapid transport\) runs from Malahide Station to all city centre stations and to all stops to Bray. (210m, out Hotel gate, through traffic lights, on the right, after Church)

Driving Directions

From Dublin Airport From the Airport exit, proceed straight ahead onto the M1/N1. Take the Malahide exit onto the N32 for 4km. At the Malahide Road junction (Landmark: Total Fitness ahead on right), turn left onto the Malahide Road, R107, and drive 5km to Malahide.

Alternative Route (Scenic and only 5 minutes longer)

At Fairview proceed straight ahead along coast road for about 8km, turn left at sign for Malahide. Proceed straight on this road, only turning right at the small roundabout at Portmarnock. Continue straight on to Malahide, Hotel will be on your left.

From all other main roads (N4, N60, N6, N7, N72, N8)

Join the M50 motorway and head northbound. Near the Airport, take the Malahide exit onto the N32 for 4km. At the Malahide Road junction (Landmark: Total Fitness ahead on right), turn left onto the Malahide Road, R107, and drive 5km to Malahide.
